SHIRA CAMP INVERARAY	17	1800	Training as per Syllabus Troops embarked on the various landing craft from 1800 hrs to 2130 hrs and stayed on these craft until 0130 hrs (Zero).	App 4
Exercise "DALMALLY"	18	0115	A flare signal from H.M.S. St Hellier signified that the exercise would take place.	App 4
		0130	A and B Coys touch down on Able Green (Salmon Beach) and Able White (Admirals Beach) respectively. The success signal was sent up from A Coy very shortly afterward, but no signal was received from B Coy. Lt-Col R.D.King immediately ordered C Coy to land on A Coys beach, and A Coy to take Able White Beach in reverse. This was promptly carried out.
		0215	Bn HQ landed on Able White Beach and pushed rapidly on to the assembly area (Malt Lands). The Bn moved off from the assembly area C Coy leading, followed by a skeleton Bn HQ, B Coy, Bn HQ proper, and R.C.E. The advance to Taynafead Aerodrome was harassed by a few enemy patrols but continued so swiftly that the airport was seized well before first light. Following capture of the airport the C&Y R. pushed through and launched an attack on the high ground beyond. As this attack came to a conclusion (about 0920 hrs) the "Cease Fire" was soundly given and the Regiment marched back to Shira Camp, arriving there at 1145 hrs. Balance of day spent in organized rest.
		19	1000 1430
		1630	The semi-finals and finals of an Inter-Brigade Cutter race were held in Loch Shira, the course running from Salmon Beach to the stern of H.M.S.St.Hellier lying off Inveraray Pier. In the first heat the West N.S.R. team scored an easy victory, as did also the C & Y R. in the second heat. The race between these two Regiments was strongly contested, the C & Y R. winning by a few feet. Following the races the Brig. C.T.C. presented to both teams prizes donated by the officers of 3 Cdn Inf Bde. Field Return	App 3
	20	0715	A, B, and C Coys with elements of Bn HQ including Lt-Col R.D.King, D.S.O., marched to Inveraray pier from which they embarked and proceeded to Ardrossan by ferry. At this point the train was boarded for Newhaven.	App 3
